- A few words from the 2014 Anonymous Matching Donor for the Sacramento program:
  “Getting an MBA is about more than just the classes we take. It is just as much about the reputation of our school and the community we develop. Contributing to the class gift campaign is about more than just the dollars raised. It is about identifying with the school, starting on the path to alumni engagement, and committing to the long-term success of current and future students. I hope you will all join with me in making the GSM not only a top notch school, but a community of business professionals driving growth in the Sacramento region.”

- Enhance scholarship opportunities.
- Boost student and faculty recruitment efforts.
- Advance management research and education.
- Fund quality programs that are expected from a nationally ranked business school.
- Demonstrate the Graduate School of Management’s prestige and credibility to prospective donors.
