GSM Endowed Chair Holders

Generous alumni and friends of the Graduate School of Management have established endowed chair funds for the School. Endowed funds are invested and maintained in perpetuity by the UC Davis Foundation and provide long-term financial security for the School, furthering the research, teaching and service missions of the GSM and University.

Chevron - Bigart

Established by Arthur and Carlyse Ciocca, this fund creates an endowed visiting professor position in the GSM held by an individual selected on the basis of excellence in innovation and entrepreneurship (est. October 2012).

Arthur and Carlyse Ciocca Visiting Professorship in Innovation & Entrepreneurship - Various

Established by Arthur and Carlyse Ciocca, this fund creates an endowed visiting professor position in the GSM held by an individual selected on the basis of excellence in innovation and entrepreneurship (est. October 2012).

Maurice J. and Marcia G. Gallagher Chair in Finance -Barber

Established from a larger gift to the Graduate School of Management from the Gallaghers, the Maurice J. and Marcia G. Gallagher Endowed Chair in Finance provides support, resources and distinction for a senior faculty member whose specialty is in the area of finance and whose distinguished scholarship is nationally recognized (est. April 2008).

Robert W. Glock Endowed Chair in Management - Tsai

Established by Miriam Glock in memory of her husband, Robert Glock, and in tribute to his distinguished career in business and finance in the U.S. Army and at the University of California, Davis. This fund provides a valuable resource for recruiting, retaining and rewarding the most distinguished faculty (est. October 2001).

Stephen G. Newberry Endowed Chair in Leadership - Elsbach

Established by Stephen G. and Shelley A. Newberry, this fund enables the School to recognize an outstanding faculty scholar and support excellence in research on leadership issues. Funds provide an ongoing source of support for the chair holder's professional activities, including teaching, research, equipment and specialized materials, student support, and academic travel (est. July 2008).

Charles J. Soderquist Endowed Chair in Entrepreneurship – Hargadon

Made possible by a generous gift designated from the estate of Charles J. Soderquist MS ’73, PhD ’78 to the Graduate School of Management. Funds support the faculty director of the Child Family Institute for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, whose distinguished scholarship in entrepreneurship and innovation is nationally recognized (est. July 2009).

Jerome & Elsie Suran Chair in Technology Management - Bhargava

Established by a generous gift from Jerome J. and Elsie Suran, this was the first endowed chair created for the Graduate School of Management. The chair holder is a senior faculty member in the GSM whose specialty is in the area of technology management and whose distinguished scholarship is nationally recognized (est. May 1999).
