

Non-Employee Travel Guide

Please familiarize yourself with the following travel guidelines prior to planning your trip to the UC Davis Graduate School of Management. Expenses deemed unnecessary by the GSM will not be reimbursed. You may direct any questions or needs for clarification on any of the following points to:

businessoffice@gsm.ucdavis.edu

FOR ALL REIMBURSEMENTS:

- UC Reimbursement policy requires that you select the least expensive mode of transportation possible. If you choose to travel by a more expensive mode of transportation for convenience or otherwise the university will only reimburse for the lowest possible cost of transportation.
 - For example, say a traveler chooses to fly from the San Francisco Airport to the Sacramento Airport for $170 and then take a Lyft to the GSM for $30 (a $200 trip). An Amtrak ticket from San Francisco to Davis on the same day is $31 and a Lyft from the Amtrak station to the school is $7. Even though the traveler spent $200, the university will only reimburse $38 because a less expensive option was available.
 - This applies to travel within 200 miles of the GSM.
- Please make an attempt to save receipts for all purchases that you plan on requesting reimbursement for. Receipts are required for all reimbursements.
 - Receipts need to include an indication of payment (payment method, total paid, paid with, etc).
 - Declarations of purchase will not be accepted.
 - Credit card statements will not be accepted as proof of purchase.
 - Physical or digital receipts are acceptable.

AIRFARE

- The university will only reimburse economy class flights.
 - Business class or first class may only be authorized under exceptional circumstances and must be cleared with the department before the trip.
- The university will NOT reimburse for flight upgrades or change of flight fees.
- Flights must originate/terminate at the airport closest to one's home/office.
- The university will reimburse for baggage fees, provided there is a valid business purpose.
- The university will reimburse for in-flight internet service ONLY for the flight to UC Davis, provided there is a valid business purpose that pertains to the Graduate School of Management (i.e. preparing notes/slides for a presentation)
- Airfare receipt must show credit card payment, if a credit/ticket exchange is being used we will need the original flight used in the exchange with credit card payment information.

RENTAL CARS

- Rental car fees may be reimbursed if deemed necessary by the Graduate School of Management. This typically only happens when it would fiscally be more advantageous to the university rather than other means of transportation.
