RESERVING ROOMS
Students do not need to reserve rooms during program hours as they are already reserved as “Breakouts” for students to study, meet with groups, or for class activities.

To reserve a room outside of program hours and/or program space, please call the Sacramento Operations Manager (916) 734-3937 to submit a request for you.

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES

RECORDING & CONFERENCING

- Audio and video conferencing are available between rooms or with outside locations. Written instructions for this are attached to the podium and can be found in each classroom.

- Sacramento MBA offers lecture recording at the request of the instructor only. Faculty must submit a written request for this service at least one week in advance to record a lecture that he/she feels will benefit the entire class.

GSM OFFICE: 2203
There is one multi–function printer and copier in Room 2203 available for staff and faculty use. This area contains various office and mailing supplies, a refrigerator, and a microwave. Faculty and visiting faculty have a mailbox in Gallagher Hall in Davis. Visiting faculty will only have access to a mailbox during the quarter they are teaching.

STUDENT MAILBOXES
These are located in the GSM Office, room 2203. Faculty can either distribute assignments in class or in the mailboxes.

Note: Cross registered student’s mailboxes are located at their home campus. On site staff are able to return items to their home campus.

GUEST SPEAKERS
All guest speakers, will require a parking pass. GSM gifts are also available to give to your guest. To make arrangements for these items please submit requests one week in advance to instructional@gsm.ucdavis.edu
