

LAM RESEARCH LEADERSHIP SKILLS PROGRAM 2011-2012 SCHEDULE

The primary goal of the Lam Research Leadership Skills Program is to deepen and strengthen each student's professional skill set. Workshops are designed to complement the rigorous UC Davis MBA coursework, and to better prepare our students to be effective in the workplace and the world. Drawing on experts from industry, and delivered in a highly interactive format, each workshop focuses on a specific skill for leadership success. Comprehensively, these workshops prepare students with additional tools they need to succeed in the workplace.

Schedule of Workshops

September 8/9, 2011	Melissa Lamson – Diversity Awareness & Cross Cultural Communication
September 13, 2011	Steve Newberry – Values Based Leadership
November 18, 2011	Randall Dean – Time Management and Email Sanity
January 13, 2012	Mitchel Adler – Emotional Intelligence in the Work Place
February 3, 2012	John Bouffard – Coaching for Excellence
February 24, 2012	Arina Isaacson – Leading Through Effective Communication
March 9, 2012	Peggy Klaus – Bragging, The Art of Self Promotion
April 20, 2012	John Bouffard – Giving and Receiving Feedback
May 11, 2012	Mitchel Adler – Leading Teams Through Self Awareness
May 18, 2012	Ben Finkelor – The Fundamentals of Successful Sales

Space in individual workshops is limited and advance registration is required.
Register at MBA Accelerator
(you may only register for the present quarter)